

The Chevra Kadisha Holocaust Studies Fund Application

Chevra Kadisha is a traditional Jewish burial society. The organization provides the Chevra Kadisha Holocaust Studies Fund to honor those Jewish victims who were exterminated during the Holocaust and were not able to receive a traditional, respectful Jewish burial. By supporting HMH's Summer Institute, Chevra Kadisha hopes to enable teachers to impart the tragic history of what occurred during the Holocaust to their students and to teach the lessons of the Holocaust so that this does not ever occur again.

The Chevra Kadisha Holocaust Studies Fund was established to support the Max M. Kaplan Summer Institute for Educators at Holocaust Museum Houston as well as to provide financial assistance to educators attending the institute.

Funding from the Chevra Kadisha Holocaust Studies Fund may be used to HELP pay for travel to Houston (flights, hotel), support materials for your classroom from the HMH bookstore, and/or the program fee. Chevra Kadisha will select the educators who will receive support and the funds will be distributed through HMH. The amount of the award(s) and the awardee(s) will be announced at the Max M. Kaplan Summer Institute for Educators.

To be considered for funding from the Chevra Kadisha Holocaust Studies Fund, please respond to the following question. Include your name, school affiliation, address and email contact information. Please submit your response electronically to mwebeck@hmh.org. Your response should be submitted by June 20, 2012.
